Enthusiasm Fuels the Christian by Mike King

“ And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men.” Colossians 3: 23

Our span of existence upon this earth is so brief, but so full. We are greatly blessed by having been exposed to so many joys, experiences and personal relationships. It would appear, though, that if life is worth living, it is also worth giving our best. The great advisor, Solomon, wrote long ago, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might" (Ecc. 9:10). It also stands to reason that if we are motivated by love for God, we will serve Him with enthusiasm. The Lord responded, when asked about the first and great commandment, by saying: "Love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all they mind, and with all thy strength" (Mk. 12:30). To do this demands enthusiasm! Jesus addressed letters to the seven churches of Asia through the inspired John in Revelation 2 and 3. To the seventh, He said, "I know thy works, that thou are neither cold nor hot: I would thou were cold or hot. So because thou art lukewarm, and neither hot or cold, I will spew thee out of my mouth" (Revelation 3: 15-16).

If you can't be the pine on the top of the hill, Be a bush in the valley, but be the best little bush by the side of the rill; Be a bush, if you can't be a tree.

In Christianity we have enthusiastic members and sluggards as well. In Christianity, the enthusiastic will be the effective ones every time. They are the ones who make the church strong and help define the mission and the spirit necessary to fulfill it. Whether an athlete, salesman, businessman, politician, schoolteacher, coach, etc., we look for the element of enthusiasm in them. Just this very day, my wife and I had lunch together and the personnel's disposition convinced us there are other and better places to have lunch. Those who show a passion for life and the doing of good impress us. They are the ones who make us say, "I wish I were more like them;" "They are so refreshing to be around," or "Their attitude about life makes me feel so ashamed of myself." We may be "drinking from the wrong springs" in hopes of finding something that can lift our spirits and chart our attitudinal course in this life. "Servants, obey in all things them that are your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing the Lord: whatsoever ye do, work heartily, as unto the Lord, and not unto men" (Col. 3:22-23). It is so vital that in the Lord's church there is an air of enthusiasm for godly and spiritual things. There should be a quest to be around people of quality and enthusiasm as we strive to exemplify the fact that Christ has made a difference in us. Never should it be artificial, but generated from a heart of love and commitment.

STRESS

Stress is known to contribute either directly or indirectly to coronary disease, cancer, lung ailments, cirrhosis of the liver, accidental injuries and suicide. A moderate amount of stress is not all bad as it serves as motivation for us to get things done. Realizing the dangers of stress, we should want our life to be free of this malady. However, we know this is not altogether possible. Jesus taught in Matthew 16:33, “In this world you will have trouble, but take heart, I have overcome the world.”

So, stress is not the problem but how we deal with it can become an overwhelming problem. Many of Jesus’ teachings relate to the issue of stress. None is more on the point than what Jesus taught in Matthew 6: 25-34. A summary of his teaching in this section of scripture allows us to consider these three points.

1. We must trust our heavenly father enough to know that He will not abandon his people—that He knows our needs and has promised to supply them.
2. It is better to face today’s real challenges than to be anxious about tomorrow. “Each day has enough trouble of its own.”
3. We rob ourselves of the focus and energy we need today when we are worrying about tomorrow. We cannot add hours to our life by worry, but worry can take hours away from our life.

The following scriptures will help us to grow in faith and deal with stress: Psalms 46:1, Ephesians 6:10, II Corinthians 12:10, I Peter 5:7, I Timothy 6:6, Galatians 6:2, Proverbs 17:22, II Timothy 1: 7

Bible Book Word Find

Directions: Thirty (30) books are found in this paragraph. (Actually, 31 if you can find the variant of one Old Testament prophet’s name.) Circle those you can find.

This is a most remarkable puzzle. It was found by a gentleman in an airplane seat pocket, on a flight from Los Angeles to Honolulu, keeping him occupied for hours. He enjoyed it so much, he passed it on to some friends. One friend from Illinois worked on this while fishing from his johnboat. Another friend studied it while playing his banjo. Elaine Taylor, a columnist friend, was so intrigued by it she mentioned it in her weekly newspaper column. Another friend judges the job of solving this puzzle so involving, she brews a cup of tea to help her nerves. There will be some names that are really easy to spot. That’s a fact. Some people, however, will soon find themselves in a jam, especially since the book names are not necessarily capitalized. Truthfully, from answers we get, we are forced to admit it usually takes a minister or a scholar to see some of them at the worst. Research has shown that something in our genes is responsible for the difficulty we have in seeing the books in this paragraph. During a recent fund raising event, which featured this puzzle, the Alpha Delta Phi lemonade booth set a new record. The local newspaper, The Chronicle, surveyed over 200 patrons who reported that this puzzle was one of the most difficult they had ever seen. As Daniel Humana humbly puts it, “The books are all right here in plain view hidden from sight.” Those able to find to find all of them will hear great lamentations from those who have to be shown. One revelation that may help is that books like Timothy and Samuel may occur with out their numbers. Also, keep in mind, that punctuation and spaces in the middle are normal. A chipper attitude will help you compete really well against those who claim to know the answers. Remember, there is no need for a mad exodus; there really are 30 books of the Bible lurking somewhere in this paragraph waiting to be found. God bless.

CHARACTER

Character is more important to a good life than talent. Talent is a gift, but character is learned. Time was when good character was taught in the home, in the school room and at church. That is no longer true. America has abandoned character in favor of performance. What kind of character comes to mind when you think of the following Biblical examples: Joseph, Eve, Solomon, Samson, Esther, Pilate, Paul, Daniel, Goliath, Sarah, Ruth and Stephen? What kind of character do you exemplify as a believer? Circle the words that you believe people would use to describe those in the body of Christ at New Albany if they judged the church by what they know of you:

- 1) When you are driving down the road: terrifying; calm; vengeful; considerate.
- 2) When you shop in a store: happy; patient; self-centered, pushy.
- 3) When it is time to gather with the saints for worship Sunday and Wednesday evening: grouchy, enthusiastic, tired, dedicated.
- 4) When you are talking with your mate: sarcastic, empathetic, annoyed, loving.
- 5) When they are beside you at work: argumentative, honest, strong, worried.
- 6) When they watch you at social gatherings; belligerent, godly, wild, self-controlled.

Make no mistake, the world is judging the church by YOU. What does your character say about the church. "You are our epistle, written in our hearts, known and read of all men." II Cor. 3:2
